SENIORS

We, the Seniors of 1945, look back at twelve glorious years crowded with activities and education. Let us turn back the pages of our history and review a few of our many accomplishments.

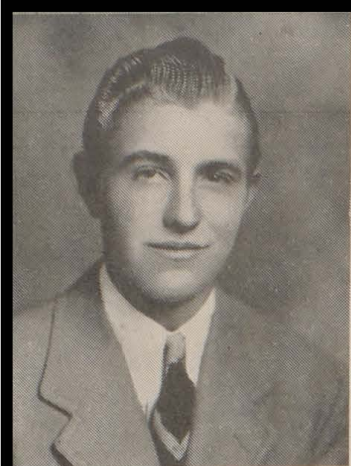

During our Freshman year, our class was led by Eugene Yamamoto. This being our first year in high school, we were subjected to the initiation of the upperclassmen. We, along with the Juniors, presented the annual Junior-Freshman dance.

The next year, though we were still underclassmen, we took it upon ourselves to tell the Freshmen what to do. Under the leadership of Lois Patton, we united with the Seniors to present the Senior-Sophomore dance. Many in our class participated in the operetta "Hollywood Extra" presented by the music classes.

Under the capable leadership of Harry Hancock, we, in our Junior year, climbed to new heights. Our class play "Ever Since Eve" was a huge success, and our Prom, portraying a pleasure yacht, was a memorable occasion. We also took first place in the inter-class track meet.

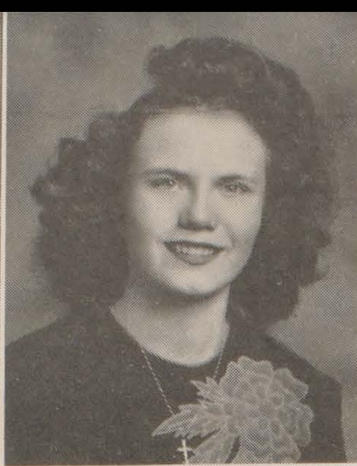

In our last year in Winslow High, we were led by George Spears. In the field of athletics our class has at all times been well represented. In dramatics we have very good material. Our accomplishments have not been made at the expense of scholarship, for we have a good representation in the Honor Society. We presented "Drums of Death" as our class play. Aided by the Sophomores, we put on the Senior-Sophomore dance.

Now, as our year as Seniors nears its end, we reluctantly bid farewell to our W. H. S. Though we look fondly back at the years spent in Winslow High, we are at the same time looking forward to the years before us. What these years hold and what life we will lead presents a curious and fascinating problem. Winslow has given us memories not easily forgotten, and as we turn to face the world before us, we will always look back with fondness and yearning to the days spent in Winslow High.

JUNIORS

In 1940, after drawing up our wills and uttering our last farewells to Lincoln School and our teachers there, we, the prospective class of 1946, began our life in Winslow Junior High.

Though the regulations and customs of the building were different, we soon caught on. The boys found that it was their duty to be initiated by the freshmen and eighth graders.

We were divided into three sections, the 7A1, the 7A2, and 7A3.

The 7A1 class won second prize on its float for the Bulldog Rumpus. Each class put on its one act play for Junior High Night.

In the eighth grade we found life to be much the same as it had been, though we were considered upperclassmen of Junior High.

The 8-P's took first place in the Junior High track and baseball tournaments and the 8-M's won the basketball tournament. We finally finished the eighth grade and graduated with a solemn ceremony.

During the first part of our Freshman year, we were again subjected to the initiation, but this time by the Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors. We also found that we must construct the W for all pep rallies before home football games. We won 3rd place in the interclass track meet, and fourth in the basketball tournament. We put on our annual assembly, consisting of the one act play, "Buddy Answers An Ad." We, with the help of the Juniors, put on the Junior-Freshman Dance. That year all boys were required to take physical education.

In our Sophomore year the Bulldog Rumpus was revived. We took second place on our float and placed first in the interclass basketball tournament and fourth in the interclass track meet. We put on our assembly which was a "Truth or Consequences" program, and also the Senior-Sophomore dance, with the aid of the Seniors.

At last came our Junior year when we were to present the Junior Prom, Junior Play, and, with the help of the Freshmen, the Junior-Freshmen dance.

S O P H O M O R E S

We, the members of the Sophomore class, have spent ten years of study and fun to attain what little education and prestige we now have. We in our opinion are the best class in W. H. S.; but this honor is disputed by several classes which claim for themselves that honor.

When we entered the high school building as Seventh Graders, we were very much on the wary side, for we had heard many tales of the treatment of "Graders." But after a few days, which ran into weeks, we decided that our high school wasn't so terrible after all.

As Eighth Graders we found ourselves looked up to by Seventh Graders and down upon by all others. It was while we were in the Eighth Grade that we found that by hard practice and some talent also, we had, in our opinion, a good basketball team. We then entered the County Invitational Basketball Tournament; and our team soon found itself on top, as can be proved by an attractive trophy now residing in the Trophy Case. At the completion of our Eighth Grade year, we who passed were honored at a graduation exercise and received our Junior High Diplomas.

When we entered the high school as Freshmen, we were still not too sure of ourselves, for we had heard of the terrible things done to Freshmen when the "W" wouldn't burn; but as luck would have it, all our "W"s burned as they should, even in the rain.

While we were Freshmen, the Bulldog Rumpus was again staged and the Freshman shows brought in the most money. We delighted our customers with a "Style Show," "Hula Dance," "Roller-Skating Show," and a "Fish Pond."

Also while we were Freshmen, we participated with the other high school classes in the publication of a magazine of poems and short stories written by the students. This magazine was entitled "Gems," and as the title indicates, the contents of the magazine were "Gems."

Now as Sophomores we are studying and hoping to become Juniors and Seniors, for then we shall truly be "Upper-Classmen" and will be that much nearer our goal of education.

FRESHMEN

On September 5, 1944, 120 slightly green Freshmen swarmed the halls of Winslow High School. The strange surroundings scared us, but we soon recovered from that. Many of us had graduated from the eighth grade of Winslow Junior High School, while others came to us from different states. This has been the largest Freshmen class in the history of the school. We learned that some of our teachers were new too and came from different states as did the students.

We tried to impress the teachers and upperclassmen by acting sophisticated, but before many days had passed, we were acting natural and had settled down to real study.

The Freshmen class chose the following students to hold office: president, Ralph Davis; vice president, Philip Rubi; secretary, Joan Pattison; treasurer, Carol Erwin; student council representatives, Jim Mason, Danny Patterson, and Jane Kabelin.

One of our responsibilities which we all enjoyed was the construction of the "W" for the football rallies. It was fun to wrap the oil soaked gunny sacks around the railroad ties and watch them burn after dark. We had to have lots of pep so we could yell as loud as the Seniors. We surely could do it too.

We enjoyed getting ready for and giving the Bulldog Rumpus. Each class had to help with something toward the enjoyment of the Rumpus. The Freshmen had a fish pond and "Freshmen Follies," which were enjoyed by all.

A few of the Freshmen boys went out for football, and in the next three years will be outstanding players for Winslow High School. One of these boys, Dale Blair, has already won a letter.

The Freshmen class is looking forward to three more years together. We hope to profit by our mistakes in our Freshman year and make a good record in Winslow High.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL AND STUDENT COUNCIL

After a year of inactivity, the Junior High School Student Body Council has been reorganized. At the beginning of the year an election of officers was held since there was no council the previous year. Those who were elected are John Bertino, president; Marvin Jennings, vice-president; Annie Ruth Van, secretary; Jack McCormick, treasurer; Bill Burgett, boys athletic manager; Robert Feagins, cheerleader; Dick Werner, junior high editor. The Junior High School Student Body Council is composed of these officers and a boy and girl representative from each of the home rooms. The sponsor is Mr. Gardner.

The purpose of the council is to act as a representative body for the Junior High School. Through the home room representatives, each room may suggest activities which it would like to see the Junior High School carry out.

Plans for several Junior High clubs, assemblies, dances, and parties were made by the council at the beginning of the year. The council also planned closer cooperation with the Senior High School wherever possible. For the first time the Junior High School is represented in the Senior High Council. This helps make closer cooperation possible because each organization is informed of the others' activities.

FOOTBALL

The W. H. S. Bulldogs started off their season very well, holding the title of 1943 Northern Arizona Champions.

Sixty-eight boys were out to try for a place on the team. These fellows composed the squad, which was under the leadership of head coach W. W. Armstrong, assistant coach B. B. Black, and Captain "Reggie" Rodriquez.

The Bulldogs were defeated only once during the "44" season, when the Gallup Tigers trounced them with a score of 18-0 in the first game. The Bulldog lineup consisted of most of the eleven returning lettermen and other experienced boys. The Tiger lineup was heavier. With their 180 lb. rambling fullback, Wilson, they marched down the field for three markers, but failed to make any of the attempted extra points.

The title of co-championship was at stake when the Bulldogs played the Flagstaff Eagles on Armistice Day, in the last game of the season.

The now polished and seasoned Bulldogs showed brilliant blocking and executing of plays. They marched down the field for four touchdowns and two extra points which tallied 24, while the Eagles remained scoreless.

The Bulldogs, with title of Co-Champions, a very successful season, and two of the mighty men placed on the all-Northern first team, retired for "44" season, and thus completed the second consecutive season undefeated in state play.

BASKETBALL

The Bulldog quintets coached by Mr. Black again completed a successful cage season, winning seven out of twelve games.

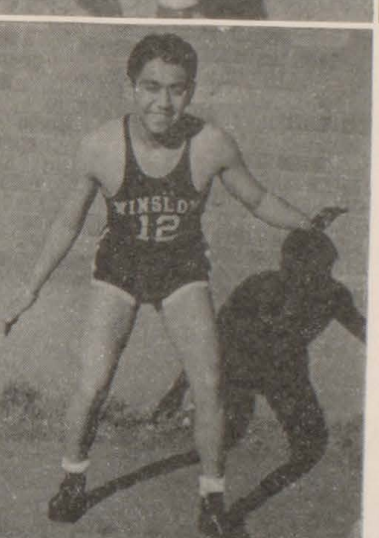

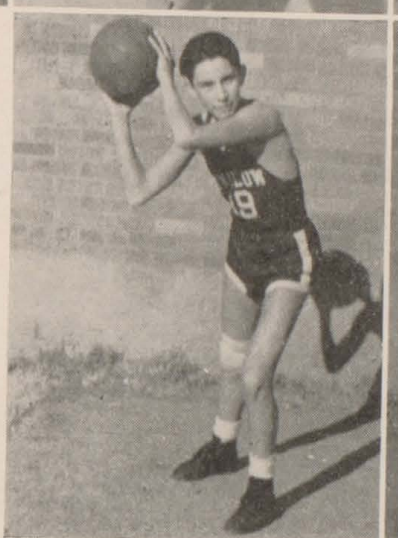

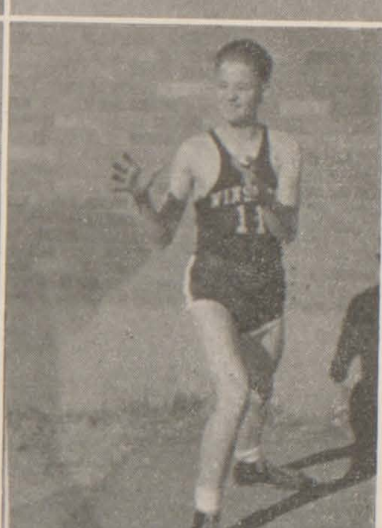

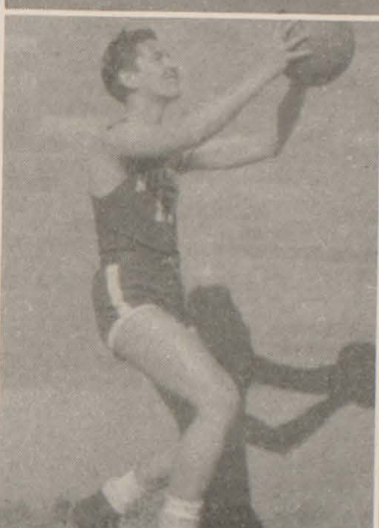

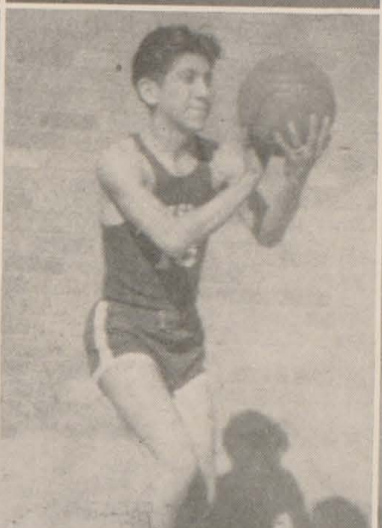

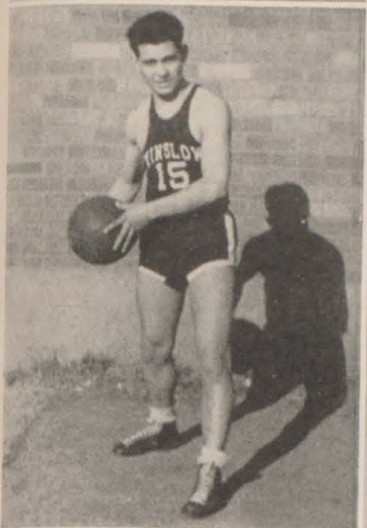

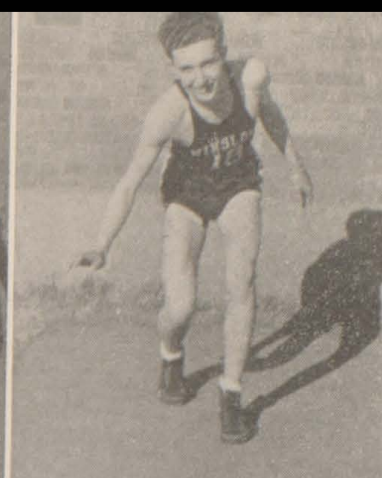

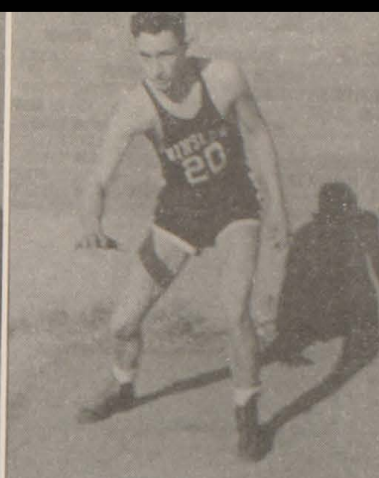

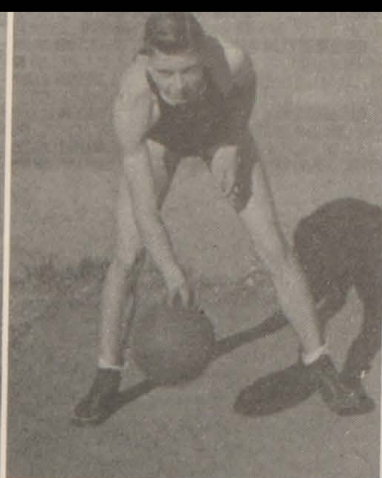

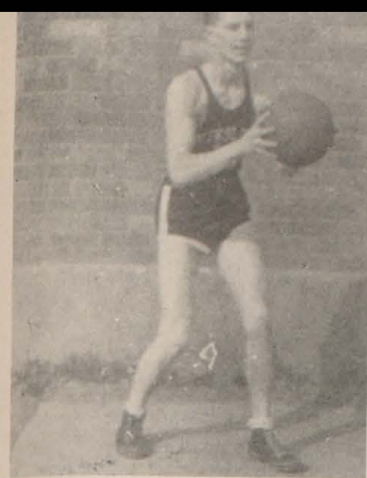

There were many thrillers witnessed by local fans on the home court. The outstanding games of the season were the Winslow-Williams game and the Winslow-Gallup game. The Bulldogs nosed out the Williams Vikings 27 to 24. The Williams five started fast, scoring the first basket, and all through the first half outplayed the local five. The score at the half was 11 to 5, Williams leading. In the second half the Bulldogs picked up, outpassing and outscoring the Vikings. The closing minutes of the game were nip and tuck; finally the Bulldogs netted a field goal and a free throw, winning 27 to 24.

The Gallup-Winslow game was comparatively similar to the Winslow-Williams game. As usual the local five was slow at starting. The visiting quintet got off to a good, snappy start, leading in scoring for the first two quarters. The Bulldogs soon began scoring. The Tigers, failing to keep the Bulldogs down, immediately adjusted to defense tactics and made a terrific comeback. The Bulldogs, nevertheless, never let up and won by close margin of 29 to 27.

The Northern Arizona Basketball Tournament ended the season. Although not placing in the Tournament, the Bulldogs had the reputation of being one of the four best teams in the North.

TRACK

Starting the season with many prospects, the Bulldog thinclads got underway in the 1945 season.

The Squad had as nucleus the eight returning lettermen, Reginald Rodriguez, Bill Hayes, Harry Hancock, Wilfred Toya, Lynn Walker, Rufus Hayes, Orville Brown, and George Spears. These boys are well experienced in their events. Reginald Rodriguez sets a good pace in 440 yard run and 880 yard run; Bill Hayes heaves the weights, shotput, and discus; Wilfred Toya is a consistent distance runner; Harry Hancock runs a mean set of high or low hurdles; Lynn Walker also heaves the weights, runs the 220 yard dash and the 100 yard dash; Rufus Hayes does the 220 yard run and Orville Brown and George Spears both do the broad jump, high jump, and pole vaulting events.

The first contest of the season, the Interclass Meet, is held on the home track. This meet is held to determine men eligible for the Mesa Relays held in Mesa. The Relays are held on April 13, and this is a contest of Arizonas Class A and B schools. Winslow holds the Class B Championship title, winning it in the season of "44". Following the Mesa Relays on May 4, the State Meet takes place in Tucson.

Under the skillful coaching of Winslow High's track mentor, Mr. Armstrong, the track squad promises to be one of the best teams in Arizona.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was organized on September 2, 1932.

Every year the officers are elected by the students. Each class and school organization is represented in the council. However, this is the first year that the Junior High has been represented.

This group sponsors many activities for the students—such as the Get-Acquainted Dance, campaigns for keeping the school and the school grounds clean, organizing and activating clubs, presenting of Christmas assemblies, the inter-class basketball meet, homecoming publicity for Northern Arizona Championship football games, and the traditional Bulldog Rumpus. These are just a few of the many activities which are carried on by the council.

This year the student body officers are Harry Hancock, president; Jessamine Honey, vice-president; Pat Wiley, secretary; Mildred Thomas, treasurer; and Betty Ann Parry, cheer-leader.

BULLDOG BARKS

The Bulldog Barks is the semi-monthly school paper. Before 1938 the articles for the paper were submitted by various students of the high school, but after 1938 a regular journalism class has done this work. Certain assignments are given to the reporters as in the regular papers.

At the present the paper is mimeographed, but the buying of a printing press is being considered.

In addition to the students, all the boys from Winslow High School who are in the armed forces receive a copy of the "Barks."

The journalism class is under the supervision of Mr. Bower. The staff consists of Lois Patton, editor-in-chief; Buddy Burgess, assistant editor; Jo Anne Thornton, business manager; and Billie Beth Clark, Anna Belle Mast, Claude Ricks, Marie Sharar, Reginald Rodriquez, George Spears, reporters.

The staff also make the programs for most of the sports games, plays, and other events of the high school.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Honor Society of Winslow High School was founded in 1935 by Mr. R. E. Booth. Since 1936 it has been under the direction of Miss Verla Oare. During this time, it has become a very important and vital organization in the activities of the school; it has grown not only in membership, but in prestige as well.

Eligibility to Honor Society is based upon three merits: Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. The upper 15% of the Junior Class and the upper 25% of the Senior Class are eligible for membership. The records of these students are examined for past activities by a committee. This committee consists of the high school principal, the Honor Society sponsor, the student body president, the Honor Society president, and one member of the organization. If this committee believes that the activities and service to the school warrant entrance, the student, upon being accepted by the members of the organization, is invited to become a member.

Officers elected for this year are Cathryn Pattison, president; Claude Ricks, vice-president; Jessamine Honey, secretary-treasurer.

The Pep Squad, under the leadership of Lois Patton, is one of the foremost organizations for girls in Winslow High.

The officers for 1943-44 are Lois Patton, president; Betty Burgess, vice-president; Billie Beth Clark, secretary; and Velvadine Heard, treasurer.

Every year a certain number of girls from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes are invited to join. It has become a custom of the Pep Squad to initiate them. These girls are garbed in traditional overalls and shirts, along with huge onions hung around their necks, and are christened "rat." They are harried by the orders of all Pep Squad "superiors," who keep them on their toes all day. The "rats" according to custom treat their "superiors" to lunch and obey all their whims and fancies during the day, but all "rats" are taken to the show by their "superiors."

The Pep Squad takes an active part in all athletic games and takes part in other school functions. The annual Reverse Dance is sponsored by this organization, and the members also attend the Football Banquet which is given every year in honor of the football squad.

"W" CLUB

The "W" Club was originated in the old high school during the middle twenties for the purpose of promoting better athletics. A few years later the lettermen lost interest and the organization ceased to exist.

In the middle thirties an attempt for revival was made, but it failed.

Finally, on January 15, 1943, seventeen students of Winslow High School who had earned athletic awards during previous years successfully revived the "W" Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Armstrong.

To be a member of the "W" Club one must have received the letter award for the Winslow High School and also go through the initiation ceremony.

This ceremony for the last three years has consisted of a public initiation during the day and an assembly in the afternoon. At night the proceedings are finished. This part, however, is a secret of the club.

Since the "W" Club has been reorganized, it has been very active. The annual Spring Formal is sponsored by this organization, and the club also gives a party at the end of the year for the members.

*Janet
Gill*

The Winslow High Junior Rifle Club was organized to promote the qualities of sportsmanship, fair play, self-control, and cooperation so essential to success in life.

On May 2, 1939, we were granted a charter entitling us to belong to the National Rifle Association. The first three years the Senior Rifle Club of Winslow let us use its rifle range and range house. Two years ago we built our own rifle range just behind the high school.

Each Saturday we shoot. The weather never bothers us; rain or shine, we never fail to be there at 9:30, ready to go. There are certain qualifications that everyone strives to meet. The first stage is to qualify as a Pro-Marksman; then, Marksman; Marksman I/c; and Sharpshooter. The next stage is a series of nine bars. All four positions are used in qualifying for these.

This year a team consisting of John Irwin, Bobby Ames, Phyllis Ingledew, George Howell, Milton Sema, Jim Knapp, Lynn Rhodes, Clifford Gilley, Marie Sharar, and Cathryn Pattison was chosen to participate in the National Junior Rifle Postage Matches that were held once a month. These "shooters" were selected because of their shooting ability.

Each spring the club championship matches are held to determine the outstanding boy and girl marksman.

Mr. Glenn N. Olmsted has been the sponsor since 1939.

THESPIANS

Membership in the National Thespians is a privilege and an honor to all who belong. To belong to Thespians you must have, at least seventy-two lines or be business or stage manager of one of the school plays.

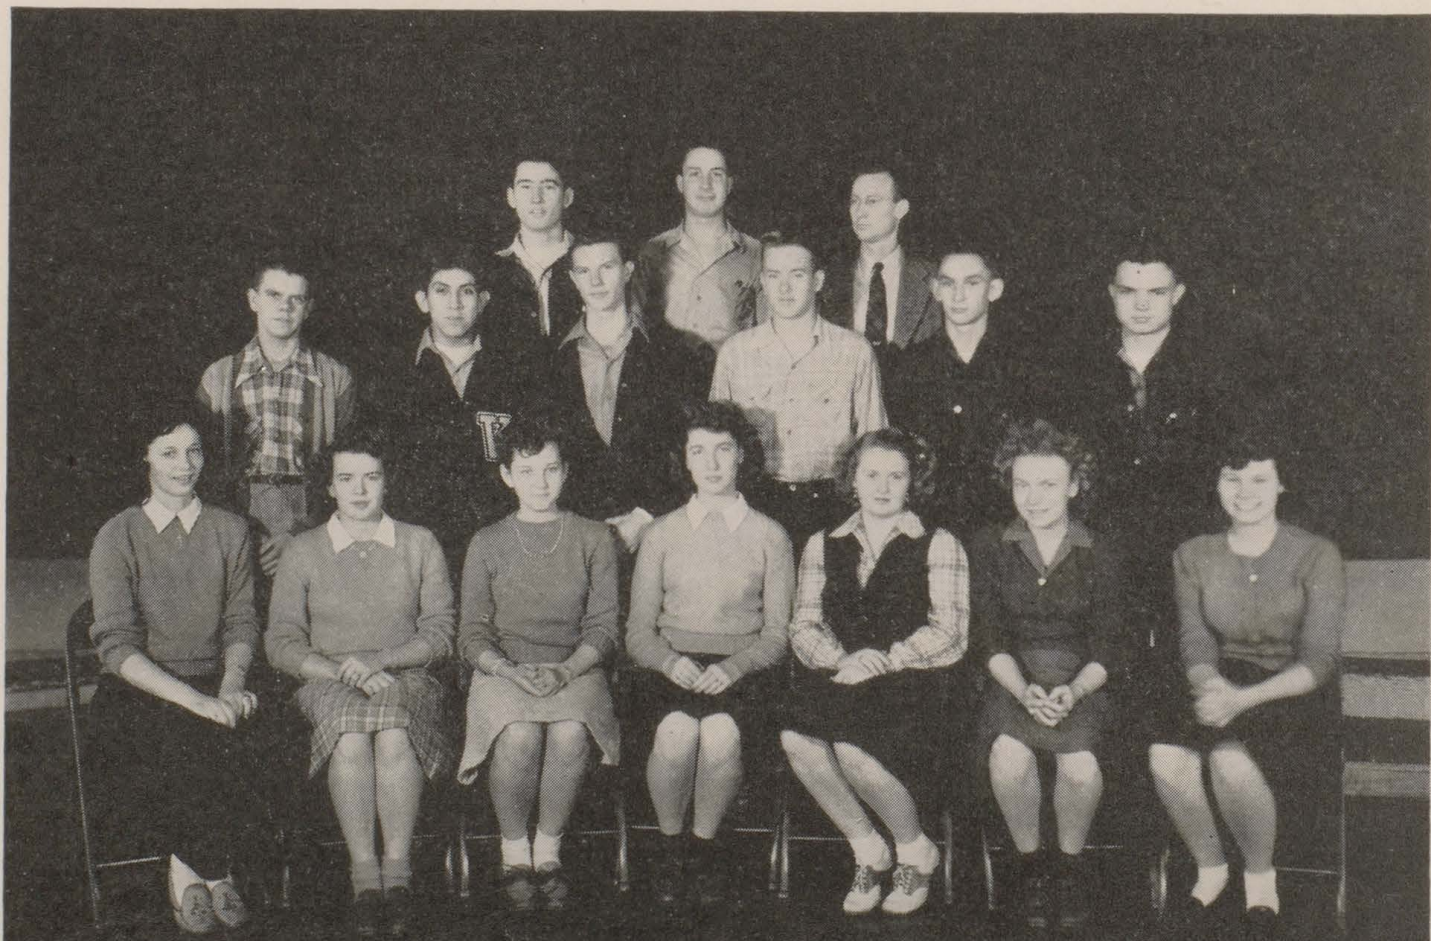

The National Thespians Dramatic Society for High Schools was founded early in the spring of 1929 at Fairmont State Teachers College at Fairmont, West Virginia. The society for students at Winslow was organized by Mrs. Curry, former teacher of dramatics, in 1937.

The Thespians have done a great deal for the school by putting on plays, the latest one being "Death Takes A Holiday." The Thespians also presented the school with a master switch which controls all the lights in the auditorium. All the money that the Thespians take in will be used to the best advantage for the high school.

Thespians have only one big initiation a year, and that is held after the Junior play. A smaller initiation is being planned for those who were in the Senior play and have the sufficient number of lines. One initiation has already been held for those who were in the Junior play last year, but did not accept membership when the others went in.

The officers this year are George Spears, president; Lois Patton, vice-president; Jo Anne Thornton, secretary; Jessamine Honey, treasurer; Cathryn Pattison, council representative.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Winslow High School Science Club, founded in March, 1945, with Mr. Gardner as the sponsor, is the newest organization in W. H. S. The club is now affiliated with the Science Clubs of America, a national organization dedicated to the development of science talent. Membership consists of persons who are willing to work for the advancement of science. The club is open to everyone interested, the only qualifications being that all members must be high school students who have taken at least one science course. However, all applicants for membership must fill out a petition, which must be approved by the other members.

The Science Club meets every Monday—one week at four o'clock for a short business meeting, then the next week at seven P. M. for a business meeting and experiments, which generally last for about an hour and a half. Members are also encouraged to carry on scientific projects, either individually or in groups.

There are twenty charter members in the group.

The following people were elected officers: president, Gerald Dickson; vice-president, Paul Koenig; secretary, Clifford Gilley; treasurer, Claude Ricks; sergeant-at-arms, Robert Kabelin; librarian, Donald Siegmund.

BAND

The Winslow Junior-Senior High School Band was organized this year by James C. Phillips, director, and Ralph Lee, assistant director. The organization meets every Monday night for practice and promises to become outstanding among the school bands of Northern Arizona.

The band takes part in many high school functions, as well as public activities.

Uniforms are maroon and white to agree with the school colors. These uniforms consist of maroon caps, maroon and white coats, and white pants.

The band offers an excellent opportunity for every W. H. S. student to learn to read music and play the particular instruments of his choice.

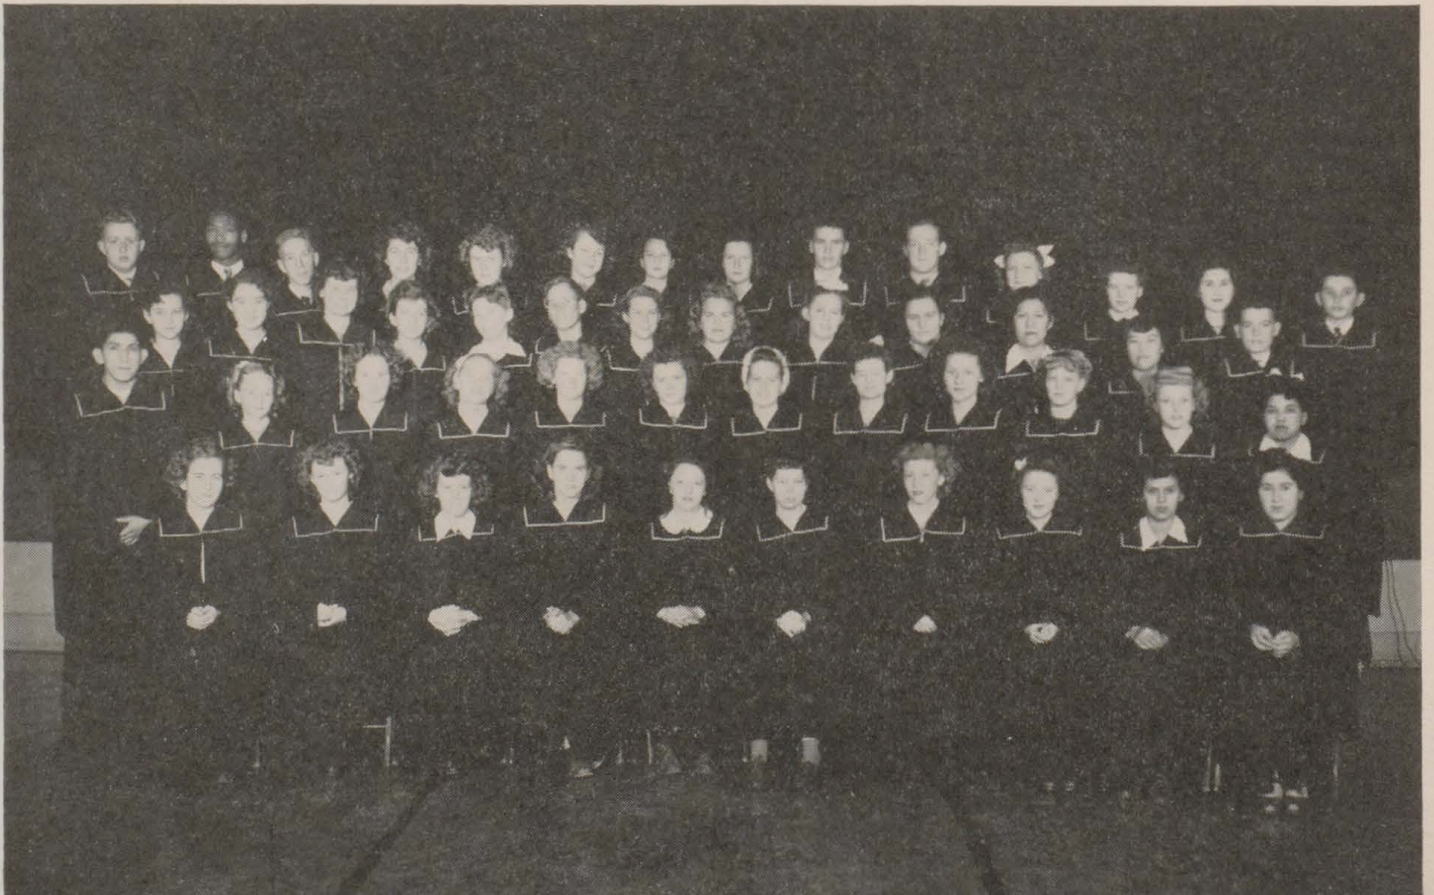

GLEE CLUB

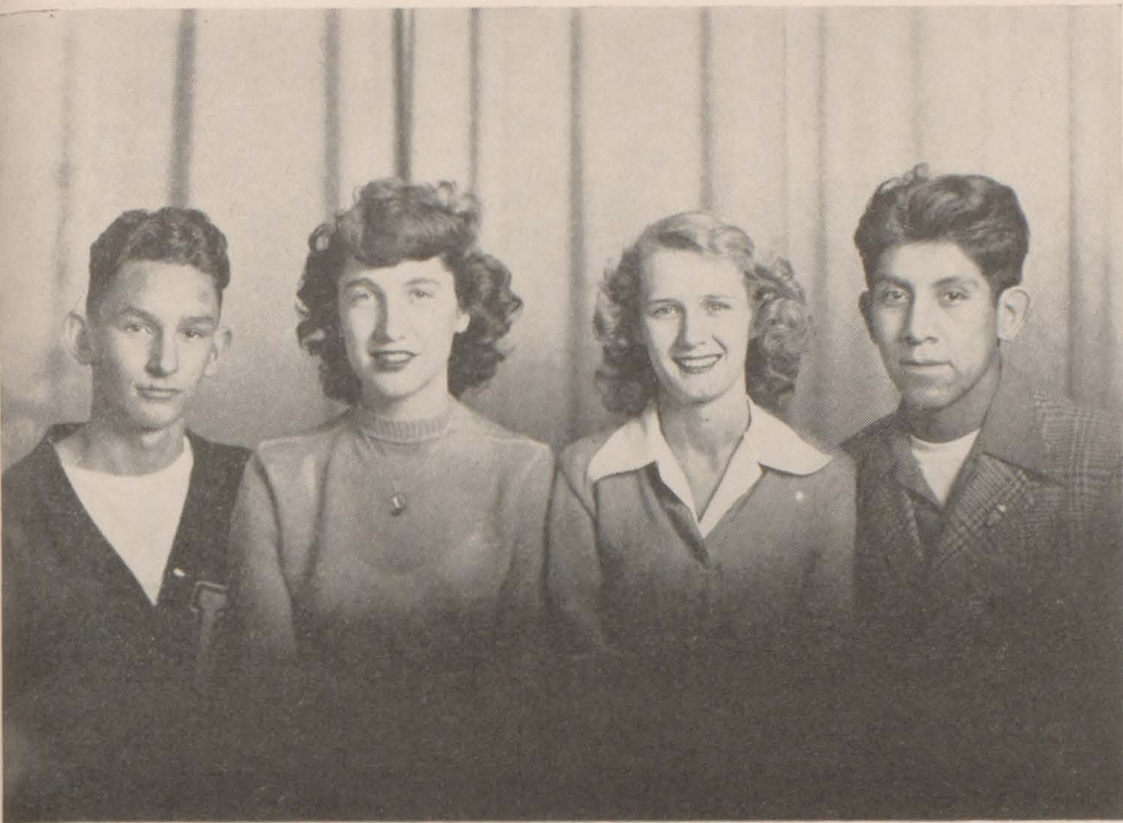

The Winslow High School Glee Club, now in its eleventh year of continuous organization, is one of the oldest school organizations. The history of the club is long and outstanding, as the previous records show. One of its main pre-war activities was the annual Music Festival at Flagstaff, which is now discontinued for the duration. In this festival the Winslow vocalists won high ratings for their fine performances.

The Glee Clubs are now under the leadership of Mr. Phillips. Because of the limited transportation and other missing facilities, they are not able to make many appearances or performances this year. However, Mr. Phillips, not wishing to live on past laurels of the organization, has started a teaching method by which they will be on a par with any school glee club in Northern Arizona.

The annual Christmas program was presented the twenty-first of December in the form of a cantata, with the Junior High Chorus assisting in the production. An operetta is being planned for the first part of the second semester, the entire glee clubs participating. It has been two years since any musical in operetta form has been presented. Last on the schedule is the annual Spring Concert which should probably fall on the latter part of the school year. A spring concert by a group of Senior members is also being planned.

MACHINE SHOP

The Winslow High School Machine Shop was established in the basement of the old high school last September. Mr. Clyde Felts is the most capable teacher of fifteen senior boys. This machine shop training is available for high school boys and other citizens of the community. At the present time two night classes of Santa Fe employees are being taught by Mr. C. L. Zahnley.

Engine lathes, shapers, cutting band saws, filing machines, millers, drill presses, pedestal grinders, vises, punches, drills, mallets, hammers, screw drivers, wrenches, pliers, gauges, squares, protractors, air compressor, milling cutters, speed drills, and other tools are used in the shop training.

DESERVING

Congratulations to you graduates, who are now to receive well-deserved certificates.

As you continue your schooling, your home-making, or your war responsibilities, you will more and more appreciate the values which really count.

Protect these well, for never before has your country, and ours, needed fine characters, fine health, and fine purposes, more than it does today.

- - - - -

Fine office machines likewise need and deserve the best. To provide this we have established service units in various points in Arizona. One of these is at Flagstaff, operating under the name of Peterson, Brooke and Steiner, and directed by our store in Prescott. The following nationally known office machines deserve this expert care:
